Graham Foundation Announces 2024 Grants to Individuals

Over $500,000 awarded to individuals worldwide exploring ideas that challenge and expand the fields of architecture and design

Chicago, May 29, 2024—The Graham Foundation is honored to announce the award of $519,500 for 56 new grants to individuals. Selected from nearly 600 submissions made at the Foundation’s annual application deadline in September 2023, the funded projects include publications, research, exhibitions, films, site-specific installations, and digital initiatives that expand contemporary ideas of architecture through innovative rigorous interdisciplinary work on design and the built environment. The funded projects are led by 84 individuals that include established and emerging architects, artists, curators, designers, filmmakers, historians, and writers, based in cities such as Beijing, China; Bogotá, Colombia; Cairo, Egypt; Delhi, India; Houston, TX; Kampala, Uganda; London, United Kingdom; Los Angeles, CA; Melbourne, Australia; New York, NY; Paris, France; Washington, DC; and Chicago, IL, where the Graham Foundation is based.

The 2024 grantees join a worldwide network of individuals and organizations that the Graham Foundation has supported over the past 68 years. In that time, the Foundation has awarded more than 44 million dollars in direct support to over 5,100 projects by individuals and organizations around the world. The 2024 grants to organizations will be announced later this summer.

The complete list of the 2024 individual grantees follows. Please find descriptions of the awarded projects beginning on page 3. To learn more about the new grants, click on any grantee name below to visit their online project page, or go to grahamfoundation.org/grantees.
LIST OF 2024 INDIVIDUAL GRANTEES (56 awards)

EXHIBITIONS (11)
Carmen Amengual
Germane Barnes
Dream The Combine: Tom Carruthers and Jennifer Newsom
Jingru (Cyan) Cheng, Mengfan Wang, and Chen Zhan
Gustavo Caboco, Brunno Douat, Ana María Durán Calisto, Manuela Omari Ima, and Romelia Angelica Papue Mayancha
Assaf Evron
Dahlia Nduom
Albert Pope and Brittany Utting
Juana Salcedo
Lobna Sana
Craig L. Wilkins
Aaron Cayer
Michelle JaJa Chang
Beatriz Colomina with Nick Axel and Guillermo S. Arsuaga
Eva Díaz
Every Ocean Hughes
Suzanne Lettieri and Anya Sirotov
Neil Levine
Jeremy Lybarger
Anethka Minajariková
Elizabeth J. Petcu
Ari Seligmann
Angelika Stepken
Stefaan Vervoort
Ines Weizman
Amber N. Wiley
Sara Zewde

FILM, VIDEO, AND NEW MEDIA (8)
Mark Bennett, Geronimo Inutiq, and Rafico Ruiz
Molly M Brandt and Kevin Weil
Samira Daneshvar and Adam Longenbach
Mariam Ghani
Jess Myers
Julia Phillips
Fred Schmidt-Arenales
Elizabeth M. Webb
RESEARCH PROJECTS (16)
Verda Alexander and Maya Bird-Murphy
Pedro Aparicio-Llorente
Lori A. Brown and Karen Burns
Alice Bucknell
Alice Buoli, Popi Iacovou, and Socrates Stratis
Arthur J. Clement and Emily G. Makaš
Yasmine El Rashidi
Christine Gaspar and Liz Ogbaru
Annie Howard
Elise Misao Hunchuck
Yakin Kinger
Sydney Rose Maubert
Shivangi Mariam Raj
Hylozoic/Desires: Himali Singh Soin and David Soin Tappeser
Anthony K. Wako
James Wines, Suzan Wines, and Phillip Denny

PUBLICATIONS (21)
Fatina Abreek-Zubiedat
Menna Agha and Sara Salem
Caitlin Blanchfield, Nina Valerie Kolowratnik, and Ophelia Rivas
Simon Boudvin
Civil Architecture: Hamed Bukhamseen and Ali Ismail Karimi
DESCRIPTIONS OF AWARDED PROJECTS—2024 GRANTS TO INDIVIDUALS

EXHIBITIONS (11 awards)

Carmen Amengual
Los Angeles, CA
A Non-Coincidental Mirror
Smack Mellon (New York), opens Dec. 2024

This exhibition features a film installation that investigates the first Third World Filmmakers Meeting in Algiers in 1973 and revisits the notion of a socially “committed” architecture and cinema in the context of decolonization and “third world” solidarities. learn more

Germane Barnes
Miami, FL
Columnar Disorder
Art Institute of Chicago, opens Sept. 2024

Seeking to recast the canonical foundations of architecture through the lens of Blackness, this exhibition presents three new columnar orders (Identity, Migration, and Labor) that reflect Black experience, history, and values. learn more

Dream The Combine: Tom Carruthers and Jennifer Newsom
Ithaca, NY
Pyramidion
The Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York), opens Nov. 2024

This installation highlights the expansive ways Egypt—as a place and an idea—has existed in the architectural imagination and is included in Reclaiming Egypt: African-American Artists and Ancient Egypt 1876–Now, curated by Akili Tommasino. learn more

Jingru (Cyan) Cheng, Mengfan Wang, and Chen Zhan
Beijing, China and London, United Kingdom
Ripple Ripple Rippling
Architectural Association School of Architecture (London), opens Oct. 2024

This multisensory exhibition presents a decade of work from the research initiative that honors how Chinese rural migrant workers make worlds and develops a transdisciplinary methodology at the intersection of architecture, anthropology, filmmaking, and performance. learn more
Gustavo Caboco, Brunno Douat, Ana María Durán Calisto, Manuela Omari Ima, and Romelia Angelica Papue Mayancha
Brasília, Brazil; New Haven, CT; New York, NY; Shell Mera, Ecuador; Tepapade, Ecuador
Dien Dien: To Feel the Other and Weave a Territory
a83 (New York), opens Apr. 2025
Developed in collaboration with Waorani women from the Ecuadorian Amazon, this exhibition is a survey of physical matter that mobilizes architectural methods—such as drawings, counter-maps, photographs, multimedia, and Indigenous art forms—to represent the endurance of ancestral traditions in the face of modern extraction. learn more

Assaf Evron
Chicago, IL
Collage for the Edith Farnsworth House
Edith Farnsworth House, Plano, IL, through June 23
As the fifth edition in a series installed on structures by Mies van der Rohe, this project features a large-scale photographic intervention for the iconic Edith Farnsworth House, covering the glass window façade with a camouflage pattern based on a deconstructed Georges Braque painting. learn more

Dahlia Nduom
Washington, DC
Tourism, Tropicalization and the Architectural Image
The Octagon (Washington, DC), opens Sept. 2024
This exhibit presents nineteenth and twentieth-century tourism-related imagery depicting the legacy of colonial and tourism consumption on architectural development and the architectural image’s role in constructing a stereotypical, tropical narrative primarily in Jamaica. learn more

Albert Pope and Brittany Utting
Houston, TX
The Sixth Sphere
William T. Cannady Hall, School of Architecture, Rice University (Houston, TX), opens Oct. 2024
Featuring design projects that interrogate the spatial, environmental, and material expressions of the technosphere, this exhibition explores how design can imagine more just planetary futures. learn more
Juana Salcedo
Austin, TX
Jaguar Lens
Mebane Gallery, School of Architecture, University of Texas at Austin, opens Mar. 2025
Presented as an invitation to explore urbanization processes and urban life through the lens of the jaguar—the largest feline and top terrestrial predator of the Americas—this exhibition prompts the spatial arts to radically imagine landscapes of multispecies cohabitation amid a time of socio-environmental breakdown. learn more

Lobna Sana
Be’er-Sheva City, Israel
Recognized
Beer-Alhamam, Be’er Sheba Valley, opens Oct. 2024; A M Qattan Foundation Al-Qattan Centre, Ramallah, opens Jun. 2025
The exhibition showcases an innovative building prototype designed explicitly for the challenges faced by 32 unique settlements of unrecognized villages in the al-Naquab or Negev desert region. learn more

Craig L. Wilkins
Detroit, MI
if history were told as stories it'd never be forgotten...
Detroit Historical Museum, opening Feb. 2025
Through the lens of a century-long quest to create a distinct presence of African Americans on the National Mall in Washington, DC, the exhibition explores the historical context that led to the establishment of the National African American Museum of History and Culture by an Act of Congress in 2003 and imagines the future of Black architectural design up to the year 3029. learn more

FILM, VIDEO, AND NEW MEDIA PROJECTS (8 awards)

Mark Bennett, Geronimo Inutiq, and Rafico Ruiz
Montreal, Ottawa, and Toronto, Canada
Ikiaqqijjut [Travelling through Layers]: A Field Guide to Infrastructural Literacy and Northern Connection
A multidisciplinary digital platform developed with Indigenous Inuit youth that foregrounds their experiences of digital and community connection in Iqaluktuutiaq, Nunavut, Canada—a remote community with amongst the lowest internet connection speeds in the circumpolar world. learn more
Molly M Brandt and Kevin Weil
Chicago, IL and New York, NY
Inventory of a Building’s Reuse and a Landscape’s Redesign

This film uses Yale University’s West Campus—a former Bayer Pharmaceutical complex—as a focal point for the examination of collective ideologies regarding building reuse, archival image production, and collaborative research within the domain of corporate architecture and landscape design. [learn more]

Samira Daneshvar and Adam Longebach
Cambridge, MA
Shahr-e Ghesseh [City of Tales]

The first English translation of this 1969 avant-garde film, written and directed by the Iranian modernist playwright Bijan Mofid (1935–1984), that is the only remaining documentation of the ancient Citadel of Bam—a UNESCO World Heritage site that was destroyed by an earthquake in 2003. [learn more]

Mariam Ghani
New York, NY
An Incident

A film that investigates a family mystery—the assassination of architect Raymond Ghosn—at the American University of Beirut School of Architecture in 1976 when the nation was on the brink of civil war. [learn more]

Jess Myers
New York and Syracuse, NY
Here There Be Dragons, Season Four: Odes[s]a

Season four of the podcast explores the relationship between urban culture and securitization from the perspective of local and diasporic residents in Odesa, Ukraine. [learn more]

Julia Phillips
Berlin, Germany and Chicago, IL
Pentasomnia

The five-channel video installation, forming a pentagon, consists of black and white vignettes—derived from dreams and other associations—that take place in specific architectural environments, such as a turn of the century clear-span factory, the diner from Edward Hopper’s Nighthawks, a classical institutional building with a column portal, and the Nada tunnel in Kentucky. [learn more]
Fred Schmidt-Arenales
New York, NY
IT IS A GOOD PROJECT AND SHOULD BE BUILT

In this feature-length nonfiction film, residents of the upper Texas coast grapple with the conundrum of the proposed Texas Coastal Barrier—a mega-project designed to protect the petrochemical industry in the Houston Ship Channel from the impacts of global warming and rising sea levels. [learn more]

Elizabeth M. Webb
Atlanta, GA
Artificial Horizon

This film chronicles the history of land surveying as a tool of Western settler colonialism through an exploration of the complex and layered racial histories of a tract of former plantation land in eastern Alabama, an origin point for the filmmaker’s family members who continue to live on both sides of—and sometimes cross—the “color line.” [learn more]

PUBLICATIONS (21 awards)

Fatina Abreek-Zubiedat
Haifa, Israel
A Territory in Conflict: Eras of Development and Urban Architecture in Gaza
University of Pittsburgh Press (2025)

This book explores projects of modernization and development implemented by Israel and Palestinians in the Gaza Strip—from the outset of Israel’s military occupation in 1967 to the Oslo Accords of 1993—and resurrects the urban and architectural history of its concrete cities and the many perspectives and identities of the people living within them. [learn more]

Menna Agha and Sara Salem
London, United Kingdom and Ottawa, Canada
Disembodied Territories
Columbia Books on Architecture and the City (2025)

A book that presents contributions and interviews collected through the longstanding online platform disembodiedterritories.com, that reimagines mapping, space, power, and coloniality across Africa and the diaspora. [learn more]
Caitlin Blanchfield, Nina Kolowratnik, and Ophelia Rivas
Ali Jegk, Tohono O’odham Nation; Ithaca, NY; and Vienna, Austria
Significant Impact: Contesting Surveillance Infrastructure on Indigenous Lands
Actar Publishers (2025)
By bringing together critical mappings, essays, and a Counter Environmental Assessment, this publication documents and describes the effects of surveillance infrastructure on Indigenous lands on the United States-Mexico border. learn more

Simon Boudvin
Paris, France
Commune, Communism, Commons: A Walk Through Ivry-sur-Seine
Accattone (2025)
This book is an atlas of photographs, notes, city maps, and architectural plans that jointly record a walk through Ivry-sur-Seine, a working-class town in the suburbs of Paris that throughout the twentieth century pioneered innovative urban forms, social housing, and commons. learn more

Civil Architecture: Hamed Bukhamseen and Ali Ismail Karimi
Kuwait City, Kuwait and Muharraq, Bahrain
Two Thousand Years of Non-Urban History
Kaph Books (2024)
This publication studies examples of formal planning practices in the Arabian Peninsula prior to the advent of the oil economy and uses them to inform new modes of design for the region. learn more

Aaron Cayer
Los Angeles, CA
From A to AECOM: Architecture Practice at the Twilight of Professional Tradition
University of California Press (2025)
The first study of the inner workings of United States-based multinational architecture firms, using historical ethnography to reveal how they emerged after World War II and how they irrevocably shattered professional tradition. learn more

Michelle JaJa Chang
Boston, MA
Also Known As
MIT Press (2024)
This book bridges conceptual frameworks in architectural design and contemporary representation to examine design technology’s social, material, and political effects. learn more
Beatriz Colomina with Nick Axel and Guillermo S. Arsuaga
New York, NY; Amsterdam, the Netherlands; London, United Kingdom
Sick Architecture
MIT Press (2025)
An interdisciplinary research effort that brings together a wide range of investigations into how health and sickness have shaped architectural practices and discourses from ancient civilizations to the COVID-19 pandemic. [learn more]

Eva Díaz
New York, NY
After Spaceship Earth
Yale University Press (2025)
This book investigates the influence of architect-designer R. Buckminster Fuller in contemporary art and culture. [learn more]

Every Ocean Hughes
New York, NY
Every Ocean Hughes: Alive Side
Moderna Museet and Walther König Publishers (2025)
The first comprehensive publication on the work of artist and writer Every Ocean Hughes advances key issues on queer space—all departing from the question, how can we build a structure to be alive inside? [learn more]

Suzanne Lettieri and Anya Sirota
Ithaca, NY and Ann Arbor, MI
Junior Architects
Park Books (2024)
A compendium of critical voices in architecture and early design education, this publication explores how collaborations can foster both a more diverse generation of designers and transform academic paradigms. [learn more]

Neil Levine
Cambridge, MA
Architecture for Reading in Public: Henri Labrouste’s Bibliothèque Sainte-Geneviève
Yale University Press (2025)
This book analyzes the iconic mid-nineteenth century Parisian Bibliothèque Sainte-Geneviève in terms of its pathbreaking use of exposed iron, its unprecedented functional and symbolic definition of the new public library type, and its social and political expression of the democratic ideal contemporaneously elaborated in Alexis deTocqueville’s Democracy in America (1835) and underpinning the Revolution of 1848. [learn more]
Jeremy Lybarger
Chicago, IL
Midnight Tremor: The Life and Art of Roger Brown
University of Chicago Press (2026)
A biography of the Chicago artist Roger Brown (1941–1997) that explores the critical role that architecture and urbanism played in his paintings and sculptures and also recounts his collaborations with architects. learn more

Anežka Minaříková
New York, NY
Clara Istlerová, A Life Among Letters
Inventory Press (2024)
The publication introduces Clara Istlerová (born 1944), a Czech typographer, illustrator, and graphic designer to the English-speaking world, and highlights her innovative work in Czech typography. learn more

Elizabeth J. Petcu
Edinburgh, United Kingdom
Cambridge University Press (2024)
This book explores the emergence of architectural images as fora for scientific discourse and the advent of empirical thought in the early modern world. learn more

Ari Seligmann
Melbourne, Australia
The Photographic Construction of Japanese Architecture
Thames & Hudson (2026)
Through critical consideration of the evolution of Japanese architectural photography and exposés of key Japanese photographers—presenting projects from the prewar instantiation of modern architecture to contemporary developments—this publication exposes the producers, processes, ecologies, and images mediating the discursive constructions of Japanese architecture for domestic and global audiences. learn more

Angelika Stepken
Berlin, Germany
Life after Architecture: The Writings of Gian Piero Frassinelli (Superstudio) 1966–2022
Park Books (2025)
Available for the first time in English, this book presents a vast selection of texts written by the Florentine architect Gian Piero Frassinelli—beginning in 1968 when he joined the famous collective of Radical Architecture Superstudio (1966–1986), as well as essays from the following decades. learn more
Stefaan Vervoort
Ghent, Belgium
Marcel Broodthaers—The Architect is Absent
Sternberg Press (2025)
An examination of Belgian artist Marcel Broodthaers’ (1924–1976) sustained critical engagement with architecture, this book focuses on the way Broodthaers’ assemblages, articles, and photos challenged postwar modernization as well as functionalist and techno-utopian idioms of art and architecture. learn more

Ines Weizman
London, United Kingdom
Joséphine Baker and the Colonial Modern
Sternberg Press (2025)
This publication imagines the experiences of performer Joséphine Baker in the shadow of the Second World War in North Africa and the Middle East. learn more

Amber N. Wiley
Philadelphia, PA
Model Schools in the Model City: Race, Planning, and Education in the Nation’s Capital
University of Pittsburgh Press (2025)
A chronicle of how Black Washingtonians used public education, as well as the planning and design of school buildings, as a means of racial uplift in the face of entrenched white resistance and repeated assertions of white supremacy. learn more

Sara Zewde
New York, NY
Finding Frederick Law Olmsted in Cotton’s Kingdom
Simon & Schuster (2025)
This book chronicles contemporary landscape architect Sara Zewde’s journey to retrace Frederick Law Olmsted’s travels through the Slave South, 165 years later. learn more

RESEARCH (16 awards)

Verda Alexander and Maya Bird-Murphy
San Francisco, CA and Chicago, IL
Envisioning New Futures through Alternative Practice
This research investigates and archives stories about how alternative practitioners in the United States generate radical design solutions and reimagine design practices to envision new and better futures. learn more
Pedro Aparicio-Llorente
Bogotá, Colombia
Payao: Trans-Pacific Sardine House

Research that investigates ways of building temporary shelters for fish that mutually serve as ocean-surface public space for people. [learn more]

---

Lori A. Brown and Karen Burns
Syracuse, NY and Melbourne, Australia
Women Architects and Global Solidarity Across the Cold War Divide: The International Union of Women Architects, 1963–1993

This project recovers the International Union of Women Architects—a transnational organization founded in 1963—and its staging of conferences and exhibitions in locations including Berlin, Bucharest, Cape Town, and Iran to produce a new global history of women architects, organizing and advocacy across the geopolitics of the Cold War world divide. [learn more]

---

Alice Bucknell
Los Angeles, CA
Staring at the Sun

Through a sci-fi documentary and embedded video game that centers on a Wyoming-based atmospheric supercomputer named Derecho, this research project explores the technical, political, and ecological realities of planetary-scale geoengineering protocols, the failure of predictive climate modeling, and the generative capacities of a digital earth that exists beyond data systems. [learn more]

---

Alice Buoli, Popi Iacovou, and Socrates Stratis
Milan, Italy and Nicosia, Cyprus
Everyday Commoning: Living Diaries for Nicosia's Transnational Spaces

This project aims to produce a critical cartographic inquiry to counter map the historic walled city of Nicosia, Cyprus, from the perspective of transnational communities and their everyday practices at the interface between publicness and domesticity spaces. [learn more]

---

Arthur J. Clement and Emily G. Makaš
Atlanta, GA and Charlotte, NC
Philip G. Freelon: An Architect of Relationships and Stories

This research gathers a curated collection of biography, reflections, and scholarly analyses of the life and work of the late architect, Philip G. Freelon (1953–2019). [learn more]
Yasmine El Rashidi
Cairo, Egypt
Monograph: Ali Labib Gabr and the Decolonization of Architecture
Through personal and archival research, this project studies the work of Ali Labib Gabr (1898–1966), the first dean of Cairo University’s Architecture School and the pioneer of modernist architecture in Egypt. learn more

Christine Gaspar and Liz Ogbu
New York, NY and Oakland, CA
Engaging Grief and Healing in Design
A research project that investigates the role design can play in supporting community grieving and healing from historical harms and builds a body of resources to assist designers in this work. learn more

Annie Howard
Chicago, IL
From Diva’s to the Pyramid
This project examines the legacies of two nightlife spaces—Diva’s in San Francisco and the Pyramid in New York—to describe how transgender social formations emerged in urban space during the 1970s and onward, as well as the difficulty trans communities face when attempting to preserve the social and physical architecture of once-vibrant, now-shuttered, third spaces. learn more

Elise Misao Hunchuck
Berlin, Germany
An Incomplete Atlas of Stones
Investigating landscapes of risk and practices of disaster forecasting through the site-specific design, implementation, and maintenance of known tsunami stone markers along the Sanriku Coast of Japan, this project explores how architecture and landscape architecture might be reimagined and reconceived in the face of certain but unknowable disasters like earthquakes, tsunamis, and climate change. learn more

Yakin Kinger
Nashik, India
Contesting Cultural Territory: Rereading Colonial Transformations of India’s Baghs
Research that closely decodes the decline of baghs—royal landscape gardens—in colonial India by critiquing British imperial power politics to reexamine their histories and present a postcolonial reading. learn more
Sydney Rose Maubert
Miami, FL
Queen of the Swamp: The Saltwater Railroad

This research examines architecture in the Southern United States and Caribbean through the lens of contemporary Black musical expression, studying how spaces have been transformed through the aesthetic legacies of the Saltwater Railroad while creating new architectural possibilities that emerge within investigations of Blackness. Learn more

Shivangi Mariam Raj
Delhi, India and Paris, France
Shadow Thresholds: Architectures of Ruin in India

Through a combination of creative research with counter-cartographies, this project investigates critical questions underscoring the complicity of the built environment in engineering violence, specifically against Muslim lifeworlds in India. Learn more

Hylozoic/Desires: Himali Singh Soin and David Soin Tappeser
Delhi, India and London, United Kingdom
The Hedge of Halomancy

The project works towards the development of a new video installation that revisits the almost forgotten history of the Great Salt Hedge of India using archival documents, fictional rituals, poetry, and experimental music. Learn more

Anthony K. Wako
Kampala, Uganda
Tracing the Footprints of Entangled Narratives

This research seeks to unpack the sociocultural aspects of Jinja’s built heritage as a way of understanding the influences on architecture and urbanism in Uganda. Learn more

James Wines, Suzan Wines, and Phillip Denny
New York, NY
What Else Could It Mean? Writings and Drawings by James Wines, 1972–2022

Comprising fifty years of drawings and essays by American architect and artist James Wines, this research addresses a wide range of topics including art, design, environment, and education. Learn more
ABOUT THE GRAHAM FOUNDATION

Founded in 1956, the Graham Foundation for Advanced Studies in the Fine Arts fosters the development and exchange of diverse and challenging ideas about architecture and its role in the arts, culture and society. The Graham realizes this vision through making project-based grants to individuals and organizations, and by producing exhibitions, events and publications.

The Graham Foundation was created by a bequest from Ernest R. Graham (1866–1936), a prominent Chicago architect and protégé of Daniel Burnham.

UPCOMING GRANT APPLICATION DEADLINES

2025 Grants to Individuals inquiry form deadline: September 15, 2024
Application available: July 15, 2024

2025 Carter Manny Award deadline: November 15, 2024
Application available: September 15, 2024

MEDIA CONTACTS

Ava Barrett
Program and Communications Manager, Graham Foundation
abarrett@grahamfoundation.org
+1 312.854.8173

James Pike
Program Officer, Graham Foundation
jpike@grahamfoundation.org
+1 312.854.8172

###

In addition to the high-resolution images that are available on the press section of our website, please let us know if you are interested in any of the images from the grantee profile pages. To access our website’s press section or to request any other images, email abarrett@grahamfoundation.org for the login information.
Every Ocean Hughes, The Piers Untitled (#2), 2009–23. Inkjet prints with frame, 33 x 33 in. Courtesy the artist. From the 2024 grant to Every Ocean Hughes for the publication Every Ocean Hughes: Alive Side.

Julia Phillips, “Pentasomnia” storyboard for “Institution” video, 2024. Digital drawing. Courtesy the artist. From the 2024 grant to Julia Phillips for the project Pentasomnia.

Julia Phillips, “Pentasomnia” storyboard for “Institution” video, 2024. Digital drawing. Courtesy the artist. From the 2024 grant to Julia Phillips for the project Pentasomnia.

Roger Brown, Roebuck's Ladder (Project: A building To Be Designed by An Artist With No Restrictions As a Memorial For Mr. Sears' Neglected Partner), 1977. Oil on canvas, 72 x 48 1/4 in. Courtesy Roger Brown Study Collection, Chicago. From the 2024 grant to Jeremy Lybarger for the publication Midnight Tremor: The Life and Art of Roger Brown.

Carmen Amengual, A Non-Coincidental Mirror, 2023. Film still. Courtesy the artist. From the 2024 grant to Carmen Amengual for the exhibition A Non-Coincidental Mirror.

Elizabeth M. Webb, Artificial Horizon, 2024/In progress. 16mm film still. Courtesy the artist. From the 2024 grant to Elizabeth M. Webb for the film project Artificial Horizon.

Bijan Mofid, Shahr-e Ghesseh [City of Tales], 1969. Film still. Courtesy Manoto TV. From the 2024 grant to Samira Daneshvar and Adam Longenbach for the project Shahr-e Ghesseh [City of Tales].

Fred Schmidt-Arenales, IT IS A GOOD PROJECT AND SHOULD BE BUILT, 2024. Film still. Courtesy the artist. From the 2024 grant to Fred Schmidt-Arenales for the film project IT IS A GOOD PROJECT AND SHOULD BE BUILT.